

Mr. Dan Dima is the founder of the Center for Public Diplomacy, the first Romanian NGO dedicated to the implementation and study of public diplomacy in Romania. He is the author of "Public Diplomacy, New Diplomatic Practice" and organizer of the Forum for Public Diplomacy reached this year's 5th edition.

Dan Dima is licensed in Law, he has served as a counselor to the Minister of Foreign Affairs for three Romanian ministers, adviser to the Vice-President of the Romanian Senate, adviser at the Presidential Chancellery. Today he is senior advisor in the National Security Department.

Dan Dima is married and has two children.