

Milena BEŠIĆ has 15 years of professional experience in civil sector organizations in Montenegro and the region. She graduated Business and specialist studies of Management on Faculty of Economics, University of Montenegro. Currently she is on the position of Director in Center for Democracy and Human Rights (CEDEM) a think-tank NGO that is devoted to advance and spread conscience on importance of proper and successful democratic transition; conduct research, analyze and follow process of EU integration and NATO accession of Montenegro and contribute to the strengthening of civil society and democratization in general; supports the legislative processes in Montenegro, informs the public about its activities and results through publications and media; cooperate with other NGO's from Montenegro, the region and abroad, with similar areas of interest.