

Natalia SHATIRISHVILI

Lead Researcher

Think tank “World Experience for Georgia”

Ms. Shatirishvili works in Energy department of Georgian think tank “World Experience for Georgia” where she focuses on policy research and analysis, strategic planning of energy sector, energy efficiency and energy security. She has been working on development of MARKAL Georgia long term energy planning model since 2010. As a lead modeler she was involved in capacity building of Analytical department of Ministry of Energy. She was also responsible for MARKAL Georgia model improvement and scenarios development for future use by the Ministry. Ms. Shatirishvili participated in development of country’s strategic documents such as: first National Energy Efficiency Action Plan, National Upgraded Solid Biomass strategy and country’s official Technology Needs Assessment report. She is author and co-author of several policy briefs and policy research papers. Since 2016 Ms. Shatirishvili is National Contact Point for secure, clean and efficient energy of European framework programme “Horizon 2020”

Ms. Shatirishvili is certified Public Policy Analyst and holds a master’s degree in Energy Economics from International School of Economics ISET.