

Florian CIOLACU

Florian Ciolacu is Commercial Vice-President of the most prestigious Romanian software house, SIVECO Romania, specialized in complex software projects that make a difference. Florian is part of the great team of SIVECO for already eleven years.

Earlier, he has served as diplomat in the Romanian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, dealing with UN and Multilateral Diplomacy. He was assigned as Romanian representative to specialized agencies in Geneva (2000-2004) - International Telecommunication Union, World Intellectual Property Organization and UNCTAD – also to the European Center for Nuclear Research.

Florian has graduated Physics Faculty, University of Bucharest and Academy of Economic Studies (Bucharest).

In 2006 he has graduated Executive Policy Program of the J.F.K. School of Government, Harvard University.

Florian is member of ASPEN Institute.

Florian and his team are currently expanding SIVECO Romania international presence and completing highly technological projects for 27 countries on 4 continents.