

Cristian CUCU

Mr. Cucu was recently appointed the CIO of the Romanian Government. He is the founder of Best Internet Security Company and one of the former director of AIESEC Romania.

Mr. Cucu is a graduate of both business and law and holds an MBA from Northwood University, Michigan USA. As a cyber security professional he is also certified as CISA, CISM and CRISC.

Passionate about information security, Mr. Cucu was involved in all BISS projects, from security base lining, to valid protection, remediation and resolution. Current interests outline security intelligence and architecture, mapped on the Romanian security ecosystem.