

Anton Anton, Minister of Energy of Romania

Mr. Anton Anton is responsible of the entire activity of the Ministry, an institution which he represents and engages with other ministries and institutions of the central and local administration, as well with the institutions of the European Union and other international organizations. Mr. Anton Anton is a deputy in the Romanian Parliament.

He is a member of the Academy of Technical Sciences and of the European Academy of Sciences and Arts.

He is a member of the Academy of Technical Sciences and of the European Academy of Sciences and Arts. He has been a member of the CCCDI (Advisory Board for Research and Development and Innovation), Chairman of the Commission for the Promotion of Technical and Scientific Literature. He also served as President of CNSPIS (National Council for Statistics and Forecasting in Higher Education), President of the Senate and Vice Rector of the Technical University of Civil Engineering, President of the National Authority for Scientific Research, President of the International Urban Fellows Association (IUFA) of the Engineering Sciences Commission. Anton Anton was also a member of the IUHER (Implementation Unit of Higher Education Reform), a member of the CNCSIS (National Council of Scientific Research in Higher Education).

Anton Anton has also held the post of Minister in the Ministry of Education, Research and Youth, but also the Secretary of State in the Ministry of Education and Research. He has published more than 7 books, one of which was awarded by the Romanian Academy with Anghel Saligny Award - "Hydraulic Networks - Computing and Optimization". He edited a series of 10 volumes of the paper "Hydraulics of Environmental Engineering" - 10 volumes published at Timisoara University Horizons Publishing House and published over 100 articles in international and national magazines.