

Tal Pavel, research fellow, International Institute for Counter-Terrorism (ICT), Israel

Mr. Tal Pavel holds a doctorate in Middle Eastern Studies from Bar Ilan University and also an MA and BA in Middle Eastern Studies from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. He is an expert and researcher of phenomena related to the Internet and the cyberspace in Israel, the Middle East, the Islamic world and the rest of the world.

Pavel is the founder and owner of Middleeasternet Company for research of the Internet and online threats in the Middle East and the Islamic world.

Dr. Pavel has also worked in numerous capacities in the Israeli high-tech world over the previous decade, and has published numerous papers in his area of expertise.

Academic Activity

- Head of Cyber Studies, Tel Aviv Academic College.
- Head of the Kinneret Institute for the study of the media, Internet and cyberspace (underway) – Kinneret College on the Sea of Galilee
- Head of cyber team of the project “Israel tackles the hostile destructive activity challenge” – IDC Herzliya
- Lecturer on new media, terror and Internet, the cyberspace, and offering introduction to information security in several Israeli academic colleges.
- Initiator of the “Cyber Week” in Modiin, 2014.