

Guillaume Lagane, Director Bilateral Relations Department, Ministry of Defence's Directorate General for International Relations and Strategy, France

Mr. Guillaume Lagane holds degrees in history, law and political science (Sciences Po Paris). After starting work as a history professor in France and abroad (United States), he entered the Ecole Nationale d'Administration in 2005. He joined the Ministry of Defence (MoD) in 2008 and worked in various fields, including defence exports, finance, veterans affairs and policy. He is currently leading the Bilateral Relations Department at the MoD's Directorate General for International Relations and Strategy (DGRIS). Guillaume Lagane was born in Agen on 6th August 1972.