

Witold Dzielski, Director at the Office of Foreign Affairs of the Chancellery of the President of the Republic of Poland.

Mr. Witold Dzielski was prior Chief Specialist at the Department of Americas of the Poland's Foreign Ministry covering a broad range of transatlantic political issues. Between 2007-2012 posted at the Poland's Embassy in Washington D.C. His portfolio included EU-US relations as well as Polish-Jewish affairs. Prior to his work for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Mr. Dzielski was actively engaged in Poland's civic society organizations. Among others, he was president and founder of US MATTERS Association; office director at the Pro Publico Bono Foundation; public relations representative for the Oswiecim Institute of Human Rights; lecturer at the Jagiellonian University; and a teacher at the High School of Fine Arts in Kraków. He published in the area international relations, as well as popular fiction. In his free time, he enjoys sports (Aikido black belt, former captain of a basketball team, long distance running).