

László Borbély, State Counselor, Coordinator of the Department for Sustainable Development

Mr. Borbély has an extensive expertise in fields such as Global Environment Protection, Sustainable Development, Climate Change, Regional Development and Foreign Affairs, especially due to his experience as Secretary of State in the Ministry of Public Works and Regional Planning (1996-2000), Minister-Delegate in the Ministry of Transportation, Constructions and Tourism (2004-2007), Minister of Development, Public Works and Housing (2007-2008) and Minister of Environment and Forests (2010-2012).

He chaired the 19th session of the UN Commission for Sustainable Development, co-chaired the European Ministerial Board for Environment and Health and he was also appointed Vice-president of the Governing Council of the UN Environment Program.

Starting May 2017 he is a State Counsellor of the prime-minister of Romania on Sustainable Development coordinating the implementation of the UN Agenda 2030 at national level.