

Mr. Adrian Ivan

Rector of the "Mihai Viteazul" National Intelligence Academy, Romania

The rector of "Mihai Viteazul" National Intelligence Academy is an alumni of Babeş-Bolyai University of Cluj-Napoca where he graduated as valedictorian from the Faculty of History and Philosophy, in 1994. After receiving his BA, he continued his studies between 1994 and 1995 graduating the Advanced Studies Program in Contemporary History and International Relations at the same faculty. He was FURTHER enrolled at the European Institute of The University of Geneva and in 2003 he got his PhD in International Relations.

Throughout his career, he has coordinated and has been involved in various teaching activities, collaborating with prestigious universities both from Romania and abroad.

He is the author of numerous books, articles and scientific papers in the field of International Relations, Security Studies, National and ethnic minorities in international relations, Security policies, European and international governance. He is also a member of various editorial boards of scientific journals.

Professor Ivan's academic activity has been rewarded with various awards and distinctions received throughout his career, such as the Dimitrie Gusti Award granted by the Romanian Academy or the Award for Scientific Research granted by the Babes-Bolyai University.