

Mr. Iulian Fota

General Director of the Romanian Diplomatic Institute, member of the Scientific Council of the New Strategy Center, Romania

Mr. Iulian Fota is currently working as general director of the Romanian Diplomatic Institute, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Romania . He is also associate professor at the National Intelligence Academy, Bucharest, Romania . He is a former National Security Adviser to the President of Romania and Head of National Security Department of the Presidential Administration. From 1997 to 1998 he served as the Assistant to the State Secretary for Defence Policy at the Ministry of Defence, Romania, and between 1998 and 2001, as the Head of the Defence Section of the Mission of Romania to NATO and WEU, at the NATO HQ in Brussels, Belgium. The educational background of Dr. Fota comprises a PhD in Political Sciences achieved at the National School of Political Studies and Public Administration in Bucharest, Romania, as well as the graduation of the NATO Defence College in Rome, Italy and of the National Defence College in Bucharest, Romania. Throughout his professional careers Dr. Fota has been distinguished with several national decorations like the Star of Romania, in the rank of officer, the Order of the Crown, in the rank of High Officer (Belgium), with the National Order of Merit, in the rank of Commander (Poland) and with the Great Cross of the Sovereign Order of Malta.