

Mr. Ivo Josipovic

Former President of the Republic of Croatia (2010-2015)

He graduated law and music at Faculty of Law and Music Academy, University of Zagreb. Before winning the Presidential Election, he had been a university professor, Member of Parliament and composer, director of Music Biennale Zagreb – International Festival of Contemporary Music and Secretary General of Croatian Composers Union. After the mandate, Ivo Josipovic continued as professor at University of Zagreb and composer. At the Law Faculty of Zagreb University Ivo Josipovic is professor Criminal Procedure and International Criminal. As a politician, Ivo Josipovic is promoting the peace in the region, fight against corruption and human rights. As composer, he composed about 60 pieces for orchestra, chamber groups and solo instruments. Compositions were performed many European countries, USA, Canada, China and Japan and recorded on more than 30 CDs and DVDs. He was awarded with many international prizes, decorations and doctorates hack. for art, science and politics. Today, aside being University professor and composer, Ivo Josipovic is active as a member of many national and international cultural, legal, scientific and human rights organizations, as World Academy of Art and Science, European Academy of Art and Science (Patron), Nizami Ganjavi International Center, Croatian Composers Society, Club de Madrid, and others. He is participating in many international conferences, lecturing at universities in several countries, publishing legal papers, composing music, and writing articles in newspapers and journals.