

Guillaume OLLAGNIER
Senior Foreign Affairs Adviser
Born on 18 May 1975

Work Experience

Ministry for the Armed Forces

Directorate General for International Relations and Strategy

Head of the Department for Europe, North America and Multilateral Affairs

Since April 1st 2021

Abroad

2017-2021 Minister-Counsellor of the French Embassy in Berlin

2011-2012 Political and Press Counsellor at the Permanent Delegation of France to NATO

Ministerial Cabinet

2016 –May 2017 Deputy Director in the cabinet of the Minister for Foreign Affairs

2014-2016 Adviser to the Minister for Foreign Affairs on Strategic Affairs, Russia and the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS)

May 2012-2014 Technical Adviser to the Prime Minister for Strategic Affairs, Russia, the Commonwealth of Independent States (CIS) and Asia

Central Administration

2008-2011 Special adviser to the Secretary General of the Ministry for Foreign and European Affairs

2003-2008 Positions within the Human Resources department (Deputy Head of Office and Special adviser to the Human Resources director), then within the Directorate General for Administration of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs (Special adviser to the Director General, in charge of senior management)

2000-2003 Positions within the International Economic Affairs Directorate of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs

Education

1997-1999 Sciences Po Paris, additional years of preparation for competitive examinations

1994-1997 Sciences Po Paris, Public Service Section

1993-1994 Hypokhâgne, Hélène Boucher High School

Languages

English and German