

Mr. Angel TÎLVĂR
Chairperson, Committee on Democracy and Security, NATO
Parliamentary Assembly
Romania

Mr. Angel Tîlvăr is a Romanian senator. He also served in the Chamber of Deputies, where he chaired Education Committee and the European Affairs Committee. Presently, he is the chairperson of the Committee on European Affairs in the Senate of Romania and the chairperson of the all-party Group of Fighting against Human Trafficking.

He is a member of the Romanian Delegation of the NATO Parliamentary Assembly. He was a rapporteur of the Committee on Civil Dimension of Security and, presently, he chairs the Committee on Democracy and Security.

Angel Tîlvăr has a PhD in international relations and he attended the courses of the National College of Defence, the National Intelligence Academy and the Romanian Diplomatic Institute. He also served as a Minister Delegate on Diaspora.