

Mr. Vlad STOICA

President, National Authority for Management and Regulation in Communications (ANCOM)

Romania

Vlad Stoica has been appointed President of the National Authority for Management and Regulation in Communications of Romania since October 13, 2020, for the remaining period of a six-year mandate starting May 11, 2017. He practiced law as a member of the Bucharest Bar during 2009-2012 and during the four years prior to his appointment as President of ANCOM. During 2004-2009, he held several counselling positions to the Government of Romania, and during 2013-2015 he was Head of the Prime-Minister's Chancellery.