

Professor Gina FÎNTÎNERU

Vice Rector

University of Agronomic Sciences and Veterinary Medicine
Romania

Gina Fîntîneru, with more than 25 years of experience in teaching, research and business consulting, related interdisciplinary issues as they connect to agriculture, rural and food economic, policy impact analysis. Her extensive experience in managing over 12 international collaborative projects will benefit this project. In her roles as research director and project leader, working with multidisciplinary teams with different ethnic backgrounds, she has gained the critical project management aptitude required for managing complex projects. Partaker in several EU, WB and national funded projects, she has also published over 40 articles in scientific journals, conference proceedings and books/ book chapters.