

Ovidiu Alexandru Raețchi

Ovidiu Alexandru Raețchi is the President of the Euro-Atlantic Center for Resilience, holding State Secretary rank. He was the vice-chairman of the Defense, Public Order and National Security Committee in the Chamber of Deputies. Mr. Raețchi also represented Diaspora (2012-2016) and the city of Bucharest (2016-2020) within the Romanian Parliament.

He is a writer and historian with expertise in the Middle East and the Black Sea region. A graduate of political science (SNSPA) and security studies (in Bucharest and Garmisch-Partenkirchen), he has a double master's degree – in Arab culture and Jewish civilization. In the second half of the year, Mr. Raețchi will defend his Ph.D. thesis in history on mediating the peace process between Egypt and Israel through back channel; and another Ph.D. thesis in political science regarding the Muslim Brotherhood.

He has published the following books and papers such as: The Vanguard of the Caliphate: the Intellectual History of Jihadism (Litera Publishing House, 2019); Tzahal: a History of the Israeli Army (Litera Publishing House, 2019, 2021); Russia and Turkey: Enemies with Benefits. An Unexpected Duopoly for the Caucasus and the Middle East (Eastern Focus Publishing House, 2022); Soldier Putin and Philosopher Dughin: Russian Civilization in the Face of a New Imperialist Error (Nemira Publishing House, 2017); The History of the Holocaust, the Obliteration of Man: from Hitler's Rise to Eichmann's execution (Litera Publishing House, 2022).

Ovidiu Alexandru Raețchi was an editorialist for Libertatea, Adevărul, Digi24 and Ziare.com.