

Bogdan Mărginean is managing Special Projects and Infrastructure division of Concelex.

In the last decade he has taken up the challenge of coordinating special infrastructure projects, managing complex projects such as airports, harbor and maritime works.

Bogdan is passionate about his work and, as a leader, develops high performance cross-functional teams. He brings rich and diverse expertise, supporting innovation and sustainability in the construction sector.