

CRISTIAN DAVID is acting Chairman of the Institute for Freedom and Democracy from Romania, having an extensive knowledge of the Balkan and Black Sea region. He holds a PhD in Economics and Postgraduate Studies in National Security. At present he is also Member of the Romanian Consultative Council for Sustainable Development. He served as Minister of Interior (2007-2008), founder of the National College for Internal Affairs. He was Senator in the Romanian Parliament (2004-2012), Chairman of the Defence Committee, Member of the Committee for the control of the activity of the Romanian Intelligence Service and Member of the Parliamentary Assemblies of OSCE and Council of Europe. Former Vicepresident of Liberal International (2009-2011), he has more then 30 years of international experience. Currently living in Chisinau - R.Moldova, he is involved in projects related to EU enlargement, regional security and sustainable development.