

Mr. Dorin Recean is the Prime Minister of the Republic of Moldova since February 16, 2023.

Previously, Mr. Recean was advisor to the President of the Republic of Moldova in the field of defence and national security, secretary of the Supreme Security Council.

Mr. Recean held the position of Minister of the Interior (2012-2015), responsible for the implementation of the Interior Ministry reform and Action Plan for visa liberalisation with the .EU and Deputy Minister of Information and Communications Technology (2010-2012).

Dorin Recean has more than 27 years of professional experience in the public and private sectors as well as in international institutions.

Mr. Recean is an economist and data analytics specialist.