

Adrian Măniuțiu

Adrian Măniuțiu, born in Cluj-Napoca in 1979, has a solid academic background in business and marketing, with studies completed in Germany (University of Mannheim and University of Osnabrück) and Romania (Babeș-Bolyai University in Cluj). He began his career in investment and real estate development before founding EM360 GROUP 12 years ago. EM360 is a dynamic agency with a team of over 15 specialists and extensive expertise, particularly in the energy sector, working with leading companies, federations, and think tanks.

Adrian is also an experienced media professional, having hosted and produced television content for over a decade. He has been a key member of the Antena Group for over 12 years. Since 2012, he has hosted the economic program “INCOME” on Antena3CNN, where he explores critical financial and business topics. He is also a regular contributor to “În Fața Națiunii”, where he provides in-depth economic insights, and to “Neatza cu Răzvan și Dani”, where he has delivered a weekly financial education segment since 2020. In 2019, Adrian launched EM360 Studio, a digital platform for premium infotainment and business content. Since 2023, he has been actively engaged in ventures focused on technology and industrial innovation. He also serves as an “Ambassador of Entrepreneurship” for the European initiative “Entrepreneur 2020–2024” and manages community development and CSR initiatives through BigDreamMedia, part of EM360 GROUP.

Adrian Măniuțiu’s diverse expertise and leadership have established him as a leading figure in media, entrepreneurship, and strategic communication, with significant contributions to key sectors like energy, innovation, and education.
