

Mr. Andrei NICULAE, Vice President, The Romanian Digitalization Authority, Romania

Andrei Niculae is the Vicepresident of the Authority for the Digitalization of Romania since December 30, 2022. A graduate of Political Science at the University of Bucharest, Andrei is an advocate for the digital transformation of our society, for a more efficient state-citizen relationship, goals that he aims to accomplish at the ADR.