

István Kiss

Executive Director, Danube Institute, Hungary

István Kiss is a political scientist and an international relations expert. He has earned his Bachelor's and Master's degrees at Pázmány Péter Catholic University and at the University of Edinburgh. Currently he is working on his PhD at his alma mater.

From 2013 to 2018 he worked at the Századvég Foundation first as a Research Fellow then as a Senior Research Fellow.

Formerly, he worked as a Political Adviser in the Prime Minister's Office of Hungary.