

Nevenka Vuksanovic

Director, Centre for Democracy and Human Rights, Montenegro

Nevenka Vuksanovic is the Director of Center for Democracy and Human Rights (CEDEM), a leading NGO in Montenegro dedicated to democratization and European integration. With extensive experience in project management, stakeholder engagement, and advocacy, she has successfully led numerous initiatives aimed at fostering societal change and enhancing democratic processes. Prior to CEDEM, she worked in various NGOs, including Phiren Amenca, MANS, and ADP Zid, focusing on issues such as human rights, anti-corruption, and social inclusion. Nevenka has also worked internationally, recruiting for Maybach International and contributing to educational assessments with OECD/PISA.

An advocate for the Roma community and a proponent of intercultural dialogue, Nevenka combines an academic background with practical experience in research, training, and public relations.
