

Boeing Defense, Space & Security
5000 East McDowell Road
Mesa, Arizona 85215
www.boeing.com

Biography

Michael L. Reese

Senior Manager,

Attack Helicopters Business Development

Michael Reese is the Senior Manager for Attack Helicopter Business Development – Vertical Lift, a business unit for The Boeing Company in Mesa, Arizona.

Mike is responsible for International and Domestic Attack Helicopter (AH-64 and AH-6) Business Development. He manages six International Capture Team Leaders who are actively pursuing business opportunities in 18 countries. He also manages two Domestic Capture Team Leaders who are responsible for developing Advanced Apache for the next generation Attack Helicopter. Mike has been with The Boeing Company since 2018 following a 28-year Army career with a variety of key operational and leadership assignments. He served with distinction in multiple Army Aviation organizations in operational combat and leadership positions as an AH-64 A/D/E Standardization Instructor Pilot including Iraq, Afghanistan, Germany, and the Republic of Korea. His last operational assignment was as Brigade Standardization Officer with the 1st Cavalry Division followed by serving as the Chief Warrant Officer of the Aviation Branch at the US Army Aviation Center of Excellence (USAACE) from 2010 thru 2013.

He received a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from Tarleton State University, Stephenville, Texas. Professional Military Education in the US Army including the Senior Staff Course, qualified in all Apache models (A, D, and E) as a Standardization Instructor Pilot, Master Gunner, and Instrument Flight Examiner with over 5,500 flight hours.

###