

William Wells

Senior Advisor, Rothschild & Co

William Wells has over 35 years of investment banking experience. He has worked extensively in Central and South-Eastern Europe since 1990. He has spent the last two decades at Rothschild & Co. ultimately as Executive Vice-Chairman, overseeing its investment banking activities in Central and South-Eastern Europe. He has longstanding experience in M&A, financing, and capital markets across the region.

He is now Senior Advisor at Rothschild & Co inter alia looking at regional defence and security financing and infrastructure resilience. He sits on the investment committees of a regional mid-cap private equity fund and a RES infrastructure fund. He is a member of the War Studies Department at King's College London, focusing on war finance and its implications for post-war recovery finance. He read Modern History at Christ Church, Oxford; attended the Royal Military Academy, Sandhurst, serving in the British Army for six years in the UK and internationally; and has an MBA from the London Business School.