Alina Bârgăoanu is a Senior Associate Expert at the New Strategy Center and Dean of the Faculty of Communication and Public Relations at SNSPA (National University of Political Studies and Public Administration).

Since October 2025, she has been a member of the "Hybrid Threats, including Disinformation" group at the Folke Bernadotte Academy. Since July 2020, she has served as a member of the advisory board of the European Digital Media Observatory (EDMO) and as a member of the expert group on disinformation in the context of the war in Ukraine. Since 2022, she has been part of the "Communication and Health Literacy" working group within the European Code Against Cancer initiative, jointly implemented by the European Commission and the World Health Organization.

Since May 2016, she has served as Dean of the Faculty of Communication and Public Relations at SNSPA. Since 2018, she has been co-founder and co-director of the ESDC High-Level Course on Strategic Communication, held in Brussels and Bucharest. Since June 2023, she has been a member of the Board of the Romanian Fulbright Commission.

Between 2021 and 2022, she was a Marcin Król Fellow in the Visegrad Insight Fellowship Programme. In 2017–2018, she served as an expert in the European Commission's High-Level Expert Group on Fake News and Online Disinformation in Brussels. Between 2016 and 2019, she was a Key Expert in the "Patterns of Europeanization in Central and Eastern Europe" Jean Monnet Module. In 2013–2014, she served as Interim Rector of SNSPA, and since November 2014 she has been Chair of the Board of the European Institute of Romania, overseeing its activities together with the other board members.