Antun Dujmović - Expert Advisor at the Institute for Development and International Relations (IRMO), Croatia

Krševan Antun Dujmović is an Expert Advisor at the Institute for Development and International Relations (IRMO), Croatia. He graduated in History from the Centre for Croatian Studies at the University of Zagreb in 2003, and in 2013 obtained a Master of Science degree in Social Sciences, specializing in Political Science with a focus on International Relations and National Security, from the Faculty of Political Sciences in Zagreb.

After graduation, he worked at the Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs and at the Union of Autonomous Trade Unions of Croatia, dealing with EU integration issues. In 2006, he joined the Institute for Development and International Relations (IRMO) as a Senior Associate within the European Documentation Centre (EDC).

His areas of expertise include EU communication strategy and information policy, EU enlargement and the accession of the Western Balkans, EU funds and regional development, the civil society sector, and cooperation with Asian countries. Since 2014, he has been a member of the Royal Institute of International Affairs (Chatham House), London, UK.