

Igor Burakovsky is the Chair of the Board (Head of Board) of the Institute for Economic Research and Policy Consulting and a Professor of Economics at the National University “Kyiv-Mohyla Academy,” where he also holds the title of Doctor of Economic Sciences.

His research interests include economic reforms in transition economies, regional integration processes, international trade, and trade policy. He has participated in numerous international research projects and has held research fellowships in the United Kingdom (University of Birmingham), Japan (Economic Planning Agency and Japan Institute for International Affairs), and the United States as a Fulbright Scholar at Stanford University.

He teaches courses on International Trade and International Trade Theory. Prior to joining the Institute for Economic Research and Policy Consulting, he worked as a Senior Economist and Project Manager at the EastWest Institute Kyiv Centre.