Marios P. Efthymiopoulos – CEO of Strategy International

Marios Panagiotis Efthymiopoulos is the Founder, Director General, and Chief Executive Officer of Strategy International. He is an Associate Professor of International Security and Strategy at the Faculty of Political Science and Diplomacy, Vytautas Magnus University in Lithuania. He also serves on several academic and advisory boards, including the College of Security and Global Studies at the American University in the Emirates, the European Citizens Association, and the Society of Cyprus Studies.

Previously, he held senior academic and advisory positions, including Head of the Department of History, Politics and International Studies at Neapolis University Pafos, Dean of the College of Security and Global Studies, and advisory roles at institutions such as the Emirates Center for Strategic Studies and Research (ECSSR), the Harriman Institute at Columbia University, Johns Hopkins University, George Washington University, and the Woodrow Wilson Center in Washington, DC.

Dr. Efthymiopoulos holds a PhD in Political Science from the University of Crete, specializing in NATO and NATO–Russia relations. He also earned a Master's degree in Advanced International Studies from the Diplomatic Academy of Vienna and a BA (Hons) in International Relations and Politics from the University of Lincoln. He has authored numerous books and academic publications in the field of international security and strategy.