

Piotr Małecki - CEO of Defence24

Piotr Małecki is the owner of Defence24 Sp. z o.o., which publishes the largest online platforms in Poland and Europe covering military, energy, and cybersecurity topics. He is also a security analyst and a graduate of Political Science at the University of Warsaw.

For 20 years, Piotr Małecki has been involved in strategic consulting for companies in the defense, energy, and pharmaceutical sectors. From 2006 to 2018, he was co-owner of one of the largest Polish Public Affairs agencies, managing projects in development strategy, export policy, and regulatory affairs. He supervised and implemented projects related to the pharmaceutical industry, security (including economic security), and defense, and provided advisory services on strategic and crisis communication.

He is the founder and board member of the Institute for Security and Strategy Foundation, a think tank dedicated to security issues.
