

George Vladimir Duhan is a senior executive with extensive experience in public administration, corporate affairs, strategic communication and organizational management. He graduated from the Faculty of Political Sciences at the University of Bucharest and holds an Executive MBA from ASEBUSS Business School. Throughout his career, Mr. Duhan has built a distinguished professional record across both the public and private sectors.

Between 2015 and 2025, he served within the Presidential Administration of Romania, as an appointed dignitary, across three presidential mandates. During this period, he held the positions of State Adviser (2015–2016) and Presidential Adviser (2016–2019; 2019–2025), playing an important role in the institutional management of the Presidential Administration of Romania over the course of more than a decade.

During his tenure, Mr. Duhan was responsible for coordinating key administrative, organizational and operational functions of the institution subordinated to the President of Romania. He led the Resource Management Department (2015–2017) and later the General Secretariat of the Presidential Administration (2018–2025), overseeing financial, material and human resources management, as well as the administration of the institution's patrimony. In the final months of the interim presidential mandate in 2025, he also served as Honorary Adviser to the Interim President of Romania, providing counsel on organizational and management matters related to the Presidential Administration and the Cotroceni National Museum.

Following his departure from public office, Mr. Duhan returned to the private sector. Since August 2025, he joined the top management team of Leviatan Group, one of Romania's leading architecture, engineering, and construction groups of companies, specialized in strategic projects related to military infrastructure, national security and the defense industry.

Leviatan Group is also considered one of the most technologically advanced groups of architecture and construction operators in Romania, bringing together four strong companies: Leviatan Design, Ubitech Construcții, eConfaire Immersive Design, and Copraag Entrepreneur, which offer complete solutions for Design & Build complex projects, using BIM and cutting-edge technologies.

As Chief Corporate Affairs Officer of Leviatan Group, Mr. Duhan coordinates corporate affairs, international business development and strategic communication for the entire organization.
