Małgorzata SAMOJEDNY, Founder, The Opportunity Institute for Foreign Affairs, Poland

Małgorzata Samojedny holds an LLM and PhD in law. She is a co-Founder and President of the Warsaw based think-talk The Opportunity Institute for Foreign Affairs. She focuses her research on the legal aspects of the theory of state building in unstable international relations. Recently, she has focused on the regional situation. She is the CEO of the annual international conference Three Seas One Opportunity (3s1o.org). It focuses on strengthening multidimensional cooperation among CEE and 3SI states, especially on security and infrastructure. She is a coordinator of the Expert Seminar series on critical issues related to the region. Dr Samojedny has participated in numerous conferences. She is the author of scientific publications on the ideological background of terrorism by non-state actors and warfare.