

Teodora TOMPEA, Journalist, Romania

Teodora Tompea is a journalist with nearly two decades of experience, having started her career in 2006 with a degree in Letters, majoring in Journalism.

She later completed the Sustainable Investing program at Harvard University, deepening her understanding of the intersection between finance, sustainability, and media. She has a 17 years career in journalism first working as a reporter, then advancing to correspondent and anchor. She is now one of the Antena1 network's leading news anchors.

In addition to her work in television, Teodora is event MC, bringing the same professionalism and energy from the news studio to the stage.